

Got RISK?

<https://cra.army.mil>

PLRS

Preliminary LOSS REPORTS

for the week of 29 JUNE-5 JULY 06

9

SOLDIERS DIED IN ACCIDENTS

- 2 Soldiers injured
- 1 AMV Damaged
- 1 AH64A Destroyed

LOSSES

➔ A Soldier was killed in a rollover accident June 29 at approximately 1400 local in Schenectady, N.Y. The Soldier was the driver of a 5-ton vehicle that was near the end of a ten vehicle convoy returning from annual training. The vehicle struck a guard rail and rolled, pinning the Soldier. The Soldier was pronounced dead at the scene.
COST: 1 Soldier Killed
1 AMV Damaged

➔ A Soldier was injured in a POV accident July 1 at 0345 local in Germany. The Soldier was a passenger in a convertible that struck a cement barrier at a high rate of speed while exiting the autobahn. The Soldier was thrown from the vehicle during the impact and was seriously injured.
COST: 1 Soldier Injured

➔ Three Soldiers were killed and one injured in a head-on collision July 1 at 0430 local near Hinesville, Ga. A Soldier was driving a 2003 Volkswagen Jetta with three other Soldiers. The Jetta entered the center turning lane and struck an oncoming 1998 Chevrolet Silverado head-on. Emergency crews used the Jaws of Life to free the Soldiers from the vehicle. The accident is still under investigation by local authorities.

COST: 3 Soldiers Killed
1 Soldier Injured

➔ A Soldier was killed in a motorcycle accident July 2 at 1325 local in Colorado Springs, Colo. The Soldier was operating a 2001 Yamaha motorcycle when he lost control and collided head-on with a 1981 Ford Bronco. He was taken to local medical center where he was pronounced dead. The Soldier was not wearing a helmet or other required PPE, had no license and had not attended the Army-approved Motorcycle Safety Foundation course.
COST: 1 Soldier Killed

➔ A Soldier died in a motorcycle accident July 2 at 1045 local in Killeen, Texas. The Soldier was operating his 2005 Yamaha motorcycle when he lost control, hit a curb and was thrown into another lane of traffic. The Soldier was taken to a local medical center where he later died. He was not wearing a helmet or other required PPE.
COST: 1 Soldier Killed

➔ A Soldier was killed when the lead AH-64A of a two aircraft flight crashed July 2 at 2042 local in Afghanistan. The CW3 pilot and the surviving 1LT co-pilot/gunner were on a mission when their aircraft descended and impacted the ground. The post-crash fire and subsequent explosions destroyed the aircraft. A Centralized Accident Investigation team from the U.S. Army Combat Readiness Center is investigating.

COST: 1 Soldier Killed
1 AH64A Destroyed

➔ A Soldier was killed in a swimming related accident July 2 at 1915 local in Guzenhausen, Germany. Initial reports state the Soldier was attending a picnic at the Kleine Brombachsee (lake) when he and two other Soldiers rented a paddleboat. The Soldier jumped in the lake wearing his civilian clothes without a life preserver. Shortly thereafter, the Soldier began struggling and the two other Soldiers dove in to help him. Neither of the Soldiers was able to retrieve him and he disappeared in the water.

The two Soldiers returned to the dock. Assistance and rescue efforts were initiated. The Soldier's body was recovered three days later. The accident is under investigation.
COST: 1 Soldier Killed

➔ A Soldier died in a swimming related accident July 3 at 1600 local in Schweinfurt, Germany. The Soldier was swimming with his wife and another family at a pool. The Soldier, who could not swim, was accompanied by a swimmer, who was later distracted by a child and lost sight of the Soldier. A local national at the pool noticed that the Soldier seemed to be unresponsive and alerted the lifeguard. The lifeguard pulled the Soldier from the water and administered CPR. Efforts to revive him were unsuccessful.
COST: 1 Soldier Killed

own the EDGE

Composite Risk Management

